Solicitation Type and Name: Request for Proposals – Self-Insured Workers’ Compensation Third Party Claims Administration, Related Services & Claims Administration Software

Solicitation Number: RFP 24-036; RFx 6100017873

The City of San Antonio (City) is seeking a contract with a Workers’ Compensation Third Party Administrator (TPA) for workers’ compensation claims administration and related cost containment services. The City successfully operates as a self-insured entity in full compliance with State and Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) 10 requirements. The City has administered its workers’ compensation program since 1974 and is currently contracted with Cannon Cochran Management Services, Inc. (CCMSI) for TPA services. Effective April 1, 2019, the City began participating in a 1305 Workers’ Compensation Health Care Network (“HCN”). The City carried excess workers’ compensation insurance for years 1983-2013 and most recently from October 1, 2019 to present. The City began self-administering its liability program in January 2015. This solicitation’s scope of coverage will encompass the City’s approximate 13,000 employees. Of this amount, approximately 3,201 are uniformed police employees, approximately 1,891 are uniformed fire employees and the remainder are civilian employees. The City’s annual average workers’ compensation claims count is 1,439. The City also has an active return-to-work (RTW) program to assist its employees with transitioning into their pre-injury position.
