WHEREAS, Councilwoman Patti Radle submitted a request for the naming of two baseball fields and the entire sports complex located in Rosedale Park to honor several individuals who have all contributed their time and energy for several decades to the youth of the community by serving as role models and working tirelessly to develop sports opportunities in Council District 5; and

WHEREAS, Manuel V. Betancourt – Manuel Betancourt came to Prospect Hill in 1983 as a highly sought after coach in baseball and football. Within a few years, he had produced City Champions in both sports. His achievements throughout the years have been recognized by both the City and by the State. With each child he coaches, Mr. Betancourt works to instill a sense of self-confidence that they will carry throughout their lives. Mr. Betancourt continues to serve as a role model to the children of San Antonio and is tirelessly dedicated to improving Youth Development through Sports. Under his strong leadership, the Prospect Hill Yellow Jackets Athletic Club continues to thrive; and

WHEREAS, Jesse Vallejo – In 1956, Jesse Vallejo and a group of young men formed the Prospect Hill Yellow Jackets Athletic Club in San Antonio's Rosedale Community. It was a continuation of an athletic club he had helped form in 1932 before leaving to fight in World War II. In 1965, Mr. Vallejo served as President of the Prospect Hill Yellow Jackets Soccer League and in the early 1970s he was instrumental in establishing a PHY scholarship program for young athletes who had competed in the league. As a coach or as a fundraiser, Mr. Vallejo's volunteer efforts helped develop the Yellow Jackets into one of the premiere athletic clubs in San Antonio. Today, Jesse Vallejo continues to serve the Rosedale Community as a permanent Board Member of the Prospect Hill Yellow Jackets and is the oldest surviving founder; and

WHEREAS, Johnny Zepeda – Johnny Zepeda grew up in the Rosedale Community and continued to be an active participant in the community following his return from World War II. In 1959, he began his lifelong affiliation with the Prospect Hill Yellow Jackets as assistant coach in the Little League Program. In 1969, Mr. Zepeda served as President of the Prospect Hill Yellow Jackets Athletic Club. Throughout the years, his tireless dedication has helped make soccer one of the most popular youth sports in San Antonio. His efforts have also led to international games of goodwill with Mexico. For the last 26 years, Mr. Zepeda has served as Secretary of the Athletic Club and is one of three Senior Board Members; and

WHEREAS, the efforts of these individuals along with others, have resulted in the continued operation of the "Prospect Hills Yellow Jackets Athletic Club" since 1956, making it one of the oldest established athletic clubs in the City of San Antonio; and

WHEREAS, in accordance with the requirements of Chapter 2, Article VI of the City Code of the City of San Antonio, Councilwoman Radle appointed a committee to hold a public hearing on this request and obtain comments from the public and any other recommendations for the name of these public facilities; and

WHEREAS, after notice of said proposal was disseminated through public service announcements and media release, there were no letters or phone calls received against the proposed names; and

WHEREAS, the committee held a public hearing on May 10, 2006 that was attended by members of the community and everyone in attendance was in favor of the proposed names; and

WHEREAS, after receiving comments from the public, the committee concurred to recommend to the City Council that the suggested names be approved; and

WHEREAS, all of the requirements of Chapter 2, Article VI of the City Code of the City of San Antonio having been met; NOW THEREFORE:

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SAN ANTONIO:

Section 1. That the following facilities located in Rosedale Park at 303 Dartmouth are hereby named as follows:

- a) Baseball Field #1 is renamed the Baldemar Torres/Manuel Betancourt Baseball Field;

CITY OF SAN ANTONIO
PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT
CITY COUNCIL AGENDA MEMORANDUM

TO: Sheryl Sculley, City Manager
FROM: Malcolm Matthews, Director, Parks and Recreation Department
SUBJECT: Ordinance Naming of Two Baseball Fields and The Sports Complex located in Rosedale Park
DATE: June 1, 2006

SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATIONS

This ordinance names two baseball fields and the sports complex in Rosedale Park, located at 303 Dartmouth in City Council District 5, as “Baldemar Torres/Manuel V. Betancourt Baseball Field #1”, “Jesse Vallejo/Johnny Zepeda Baseball Field #4”, and “Prospect Hills Yellow Jackets Sports Complex of San Antonio.”

Staff recommends approval of this ordinance.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Councilwoman Patti Radle, City Councilwoman for District 5 submitted a request for the naming of two baseball fields and the sports complex located in Rosedale Park as “Baldemar Torres/Manuel V. Betancourt Baseball Field #1”, “Jesse Vallejo/Johnny Zepeda Baseball Field #4”, and “Prospect Hills Yellow Jackets Sports Complex of San Antonio.” The request was submitted to honor those individuals who have contributed their time and energy for several years to the youth of the community. Currently Baseball Field #1 is named “Baldemar Torres.”

Manuel V. Betancourt – Manuel Betancourt came to Prospect Hill in 1983 as a highly sought after coach in baseball and football. Within a few years, he had produced City Champions in both sports. His achievements throughout the years have been recognized by both the City and the State. With each child he coaches, Mr. Betancourt works to instill a sense of self-confidence that they will carry throughout their lives. Mr. Betancourt continues to serve as a role model to the children of San Antonio and is tirelessly dedicated to improving Youth Development through Sports. Under his strong leadership, the Prospect Hills Yellow Jackets Athletic Club continues to thrive.

Jesse Vallejo – In 1956, Jesse Vallejo and a group of young men formed the Prospect Hills Yellow Jackets Athletic Club in San Antonio’s Rosedale Community. It was a continuation of an athletic club he had helped form in 1932 before leaving to fight in World War II. In 1965, Mr. Vallejo served as President of the Prospect Hills Yellow Jackets Soccer League and in the early 1970s; he was instrumental in establishing a Prospect Hills Yellow Jacket scholarship program for young athletes who had competed in the league. As a coach or as a fundraiser, Mr. Vallejo's volunteer efforts helped develop the Yellow Jackets into one of the premiere athletic clubs in San Antonio. Today, Jesse Vallejo continues to serve the Rosedale Community as a permanent Board Member of the Prospect Hills Yellow Jackets and is the oldest surviving founder.

Johnny Zepeda – Johnny Zepeda grew up in the Rosedale Community and continued to be an active participant in the community following his return from World War II. In 1959, he began his lifelong affiliation with the Prospect Hills Yellow Jackets as assistant coach in the Little League Program. In 1969, Mr. Zepeda served as President of the Prospect Hills Yellow Jackets Athletic Club. Throughout the years, his tireless dedication has helped make soccer one of the most popular youth sports in San Antonio. His efforts have also led to international games of goodwill with Mexico. For the last 26 years, Mr. Zepeda has served as Secretary of the Athletic Club and is one of three Senior Board Members.

As per the requirements of Chapter 2, Article VI of the City Code of the City of San Antonio, a committee was established to hold a public hearing on this proposal. The committee consisted of Councilwoman Patti Radle, City Councilwoman, District 5; Brother Stanley Culotta, Community Representative; and Mike Gonzaba, Assistant Director of the Department of Parks and Recreation. In addition, as required by City Code, notice of the public hearing was advertised through public service announcements, through media releases and by direct notification of all residents and businesses within 200 feet of this public property.

Following the distribution of notices, there were no notices received regarding the proposed name. The public hearing was held on Wednesday, May 10, 2006 at 6:00 p.m. at the Cenizo Park Elementary School, located at 3011 Ruiz. Three members of the community attended the hearing. The committee concurred to recommend to the City Council that the current name of, Baseball Field #1, "Baldemar Torres", Baseball Field #4, and the sports complex be named, "Baldemar Torres/Manuel V. Betancourt Baseball Field #1", "Jesse Vallejo/Johnny Zepeda Baseball Field #4, and "Prospect Hills Yellow Jackets Sports Complex of San Antonio", respectively.

POLICY ANALYSIS

The naming and renaming of the City's public facilities is regulated under Chapter 2, Article VI of the City Code. This action is consistent with these regulations.

FISCAL IMPACT

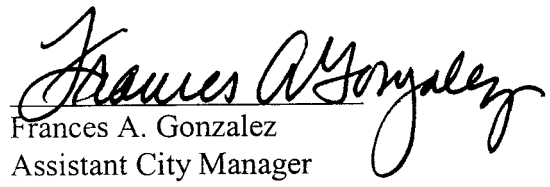

Beyond the minimal costs associated with signage, this action will place no demands on the City's General fund.

COORDINATION

This action was coordinated with the City Clerk's and the City Attorney's Offices.

Re: Naming of two baseball fields at Rosedale Park

Dear Ms. Radle:

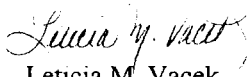

Attached for consideration is a request to name two baseball fields at Rosedale Park in honor of members who have dedicated many years to the Prospect Hill Yellow Jacket Organization. As Ordinance No. 88401 stipulates (attached), your request has been sent to the following individuals:

- Sheryl L. Sculley, City Manager
- Malcolm J. Matthews, Director, Parks and Recreation
- Michael D. Bernard, City Attorney

In accordance with Ordinance No. 88401, a committee will be formed comprised of Mr. Malcolm Matthews (or his designee), Councilwoman Patti Radle and Brother Stanley Culotta, who will be representing the community to discuss all issues pertaining to the name change. A public hearing will be coordinated at a later date by the Parks and Recreation Department.

You will be apprised of the progress of the requested change.

Sincerely,

Leticia M. Vacek
City Clerk

SUBJECT: Naming fields at Rosedale Park
DATE: February 23, 2006

At the request of the Prospect Hill Yellow Jackets, this memo serves to initiate the process to name two baseball fields and the complex at Rosedale Park in honor of members who have dedicated many years to this organization. A committee was designated who considered a list of possible names and unanimously selected the following:

Field #1-Maneul Torres/Manuel V. Betancourt, Field #4-add Jesse Vallejo/Johnny Zepeda, Complex-Prospect Hill Yellow Jackets Sports Complex.

In accordance with Ordinance No. 88401, a committee will be formed comprised of Mr. Malcolm Matthews (or his designee), Councilwoman Patti Radle, and Brother Stanley Culotta, a community member.

The City's committee will hold a public hearing, coordinated by the Parks and Recreation Department.

Patti Radle
Councilwoman, District 5
