DRAFT

WHEREAS, the Armed Forces of the United States of America are currently engaged in combat: and

WHEREAS, the US military comprises an integral part of the society of San Antonio; and

WHEREAS, the relationship between the US military and the City of San Antonio is long established; and

WHEREAS, the joint history of our city and the US Armed Forces is highly valued; and

WHEREAS, our citizens are serving and others have sons and daughters currently swerving proudly in the military; and

WHEREAS, the US military has contributed significantly to the cultural richness of our city; and

WHEREAS, the US military forces have defended our freedoms many times and in many locales; and

WHEREAS, the preservation of the warm and hospitable bonds of friendship between our city and the military is of paramount importance; and

WHEREAS, our city is proud of the designation of Military City USA; and

WHEREAS, we look forward to the continued honor as host to major military forces; and

WHEREAS, our citizens and the US military have served as beacons in the courageous defense of liberty; and

WHEREAS, one of San Antonio's sons has recently made the supreme sacrifice in the quest for freedom for Iraqi citizens

THEREFORE, the CITY OF SAN ANTONIO hereby adopts this resolution in support of US military forces serving world wide in defense of freedom.
