

CITY OF SAN ANTONIO
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT
CITY COUNCIL AGENDA MEMORANDUM

TO: Mayor and City Council

FROM: Ramiro A. Cavazos, Director

SUBJECT: Ordinance approving appointments and reappointments to the Alamo Workforce Development Board, also known as the Alamo WorkSource Board.

DATE: November 18, 2004

SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATIONS

This Ordinance approves three new appointments and five reappointments to the Alamo Workforce Development Board (AWDB) also known as Alamo WorkSource. The Committee of Six, in its October 26 meeting, recommended the following appointments: Dr. Federico Zaragoza to fill an un-expired term in the secondary education category, Rebecca Cervantez to fill an un-expired term in the community-based organization category, and Grace Moser to fill an un-expired term in the public assistance category.

The ordinance also reappoints Thomas Murray, John Curran, Douglas Heath, and Diane Cortez to serve three-year terms in the business category and Roland Pena, for a three-year term in the economic development category. A complete listing of current and proposed board members is attached.

Staff recommends approval of this ordinance.

BACKGROUND

The Alamo Workforce Board announced a re-branding of the organization in October. All programs contracted for or operated by the Board including the workforce centers, the Youth, child care programs, and the board itself, have been re-titled Alamo WorkSource. The legal title of the organization will continue to be Alamo Workforce Development Inc.

Pursuant to the Partnership Agreement between the principal entities and the AWDB, appointees are nominated by the Chief Elected Officials (CEO's) of the Alamo region through their representatives on the "Committee of Six." The Committee is composed of two elected officials each from the City, Bexar County and the surrounding rural area. Currently sitting on the Committee of Six for the City are Mayor Edward D. Garza, Councilman Enrique M. Barrera, from Bexar County are Judge Nelson W. Wolff and Commissioner Tommy Atkisson, and from the rural area, Bandera County Judge Richard

A. Evans and Comal County Commissioner Jay P. Millikin. The Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) stipulates 51% of the board must be private sector representatives. There are nine required categories that include organized labor, education, public employment, and vocational rehabilitation among others. The agency also requires local workforce boards to be balanced geographically to represent the entire twelve county region, by ethnicity and gender.

The Committee of Six considered two nominations to fill the community-based organization vacancy. Those considered under the community-based organization category included:

Rebecca Cervantez, Executive Director, Avance San Antonio
Toni-Marie Van Buren, Director, Public Policy, United Way

They chose Ms. Cervantez to serve as the community-based organization representative. The Committee also selected Dr. Federico Zaragoza, Vice Chancellor-Professional, Technical and Workforce Education, Alamo Community College District to serve in the higher education slot, and Grace Moser, Regional Director, Office of Eligibility Services, Health and Human Services Commission to serve in the public assistance category.

In addition, the Committee reappointed the following business category members:

Name	Title
Diane Cortez	President/Owner, Absolutely Everything Catering
John Curran	Director/Owner, PersoNet
Douglas Heath	Executive Director of State and Legislative Affairs, West Chamber of Commerce
Thomas Murray	Vice President-Information Services, Holt CAT

In the category of economic development, Roland Pena, Board Member, Kerr Economic Development Foundation was also reappointed. Copies of all the nomination forms are attached.

POLICY ANALYSIS

This ordinance is a continuation of current City policy authorizing the City Council to review and approve appointments to the AWDB through the Interlocal Agreement between the Chief Elected Officials and the Alamo Workforce Development Inc. The Rural Area Judges, Bexar County Commissioners Court, as well as the San Antonio City Council, must each approve these appointments. These appointments were approved by the Area Rural Judges on November 3, 2004 and by the Bexar County Commissioners Court on November 9, 2004.

FISCAL IMPACT

There is no fiscal implication from the approval of these nominations.

COORDINATION

This item has been coordinated with Alamo WorkSource, Bexar County, the Area Rural Judges, the City Attorney's Office, and was approved by the Committee of Six at their meeting on October 26, 2004.
