

CITY OF SAN ANTONIO
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT
CITY COUNCIL AGENDA MEMORANDUM

CONSENT AGENDA

ITEM NO. 55

TO: Mayor and City Council

FROM: Ramiro A. Cavazos, Director

SUBJECT: Ordinance approving appointments to the Alamo WorkSource Board

DATE: November 3, 2005

SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATIONS

This Ordinance approves two appointments to the Alamo WorkSource Board (AWB). The Committee of Six, at its October 17 meeting, recommended the following appointments: Douglas Killian to fill an un-expired term in the education category and Lydia Martinez to fill an un-expired term in the literacy category.

Staff recommends approval of this ordinance.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Pursuant to the Partnership Agreement between the principal entities and the AWB, appointees are nominated by the Chief Elected Officials (CEO's) of the Alamo region through their representatives on the "Committee of Six." The Committee is composed of two elected officials each from the City, Bexar County and the surrounding rural area. Currently sitting on the Committee of Six for the City are Mayor Phil Hardberger and Councilman Richard Perez. Councilman Chip Haass serves as alternate. Bexar County Judge Nelson W. Wolff and Commissioner Tommy Atkisson represent Bexar County. Bandera County Judge Richard A. Evans and Comal County Commissioner Jay P. Millikin represent the rural area. The Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) stipulates 51 percent of the board must be private sector representatives. There are nine required categories that include organized labor, education, public employment, and vocational rehabilitation among others. The agency also requires local workforce boards to be balanced geographically to represent the entire 12 county region, by ethnicity and by gender.

At its most recent meeting, the Committee of Six chose Killian, Superintendent, Poteet Independent School District, to fill the education vacancy and Lydia Martinez, Director, Adult and Community Education, Northside Independent School District, to serve as the literacy representative.

Copies of their nomination forms are attached.

POLICY ANALYSIS

This ordinance is a continuation of current City policy authorizing the City Council to review and approve appointments to the AWB through the Interlocal Agreement between the Chief Elected Officials and the Alamo Workforce Development Inc. The Rural Area Judges, Bexar County Commissioners Court, as well as the San Antonio City Council, must each approve these appointments. These appointments were scheduled for approval by the Area Rural Judges on October 26, 2005 and by the Bexar County Commissioners Court on November 1, 2005.

FISCAL IMPACT

There is no fiscal implication from the approval of these nominations.

COORDINATION

This item has been coordinated with Alamo WorkSource, Bexar County, the Area Rural Judges, the City Attorney's Office, and was approved by the Committee of Six at their meeting on October 18, 2005.
